

Dear Friends of Living River:

On Saturday, October 2nd, we'll be headed to Harvard, IL to do a concert at Royal Oak Farm Orchard. Once again, we'll be chartering a bus to go along, and Bonnie from Progressive Travel will again be our driver. Harvard is not far from the border of Wisconsin, less than an hour southeast of Janesville.

There is a pavilion on the grounds where the concert will be held. There are picnic tables in it for lunch and plenty of chairs for the people. The pavilion is screened in and of course, a roof overhead in case of rain - it's a beautiful facility. Our concert will begin at 2 p.m. We'll be going rain or shine, so be sure to bring along a jacket and umbrella just in case, but there are lots of things to see and do under cover as well. There's a nice restaurant for lunch, a bakery and book store as well as the apple barn. For those of you who have not gone before, check out their website for more information and pictures.

The bus will leave the Rib Mountain Travel Center at 7 a.m. on Saturday, October 2nd. Cost for the trip will be $35.00 per person due by Sept. 20th. Bonnie will also have a pick up at the Abbotsford Shell Station on the way and another stop in Stevens Point. She'll also make a pit stop along the way to be determined later. Our concert in the pavilion will begin at 2 p.m. and you'll have a little time after that to grab a last minute donut or cider for the way home. We'll have the bus boarding at 4:30 p.m. to head back. I'm sorry, but again, no refunds unless the trip would be cancelled or if there would be a waiting list.

That is all for now. Below is a sign-up sheet. If you'd like to join us, please tell your friends too! Love and Blessings to you all, Nancy & the guys!
